Media Editorial Board - Website

I have been working on a solution for the mobile view issues and other concerns that were raised by the Media Editorial Board and I think I have a possible solution for most of them now. A mock-up of suggested changes is currently being created which will form the basis for discussion by the Media Editorial Board at its next meeting.

Staffing review

To note that the staffing review has not begun (item 117e)
